

Vampi'Ella

Mischievous sparkler

Don't worry! Although 'mischievous' is the middle name, they're vegetarian, apart from 'squealing salami' on their favourite food, pizza! Also partial to chocolate & strawberry milk, cool mint julep and gelato eye-scream! Vampi'Ella is a little more social than others of her kind. She adores cute vampires and clock towers and springs surprise hugs on her BFF's Mini Ben & Squidge! She's often seen with them when not playing with her toys in her almost-secret hideout deep in the Candy Cane Caves. Good thing her fangs never rot! Sticks up for her pals. A swell gal, really! She can run up {or down} Mt Silimanjaro in zero point 60 seconds! It's tiring to watch her rushing about sometimes! She's patient with slower Moshlings though! She can make night glow in the dark rainbows! She sparkles in the moonlight.

Habitat

Deep in the candy cane caves, also wherever her friends and her decide for a meet-up.

Personality

Shy around strangers, although bright and bubbly with friends. She is smart too! She likes things that are different and unique!

Likes

Friends, clock towers, pizza, gelato, vampire books and movies (as long as they're not too scary!)

Dislikes

Mean, selfish, boring & lazy people, scary movies, school (unless it's Vampire Varsity, Camp Demi~God or Hogwash)

Appearance: She has little wings, so she can fly. They're midnight blue with silver starry sparkles, like the night sky. She has pale skin and sparkly green eyes. She wears a 17th century style criss-cross 'witchling dress' which is grey at the top and lilac at the bottom, with green lace style Victorian booties! She also wears a bat choker.
